Disclaimer and Agreements

The AKSOM Office needs to be notified if there are any changes regarding this application. Courses completed through the Alaska District School of Ministry (AKSOM) that are required by the Assemblies of God for credentials meet the educational requirements of the General Council for the respective level of credential. Completion of the courses, however, does not guarantee that a ministry credential will be granted, nor that preferential treatment will be given to those completing the required ministerial training courses through AKSOM. The credentialing of ministers is a process separate from the completion of the educational requirements. Please see the AKMN Website for qualifications for ministerial credentialing.

AKSOM is a non-accredited Bible institute. While endorsed by the Executive Presbytery of the General Council of the Assemblies of God for ministerial training, courses completed through AKSOM do not automatically qualify for college credit.

Students are expected to conduct themselves in a Christ-like and biblical manner at all times, in both their personal conduct and pursuit of their studies, striving to maintain the highest of ethical standards, including honesty and integrity. Failure to adhere to such standards may result in the student's dismissal from AKSOM, subject to the decision of the school's administration.

By my signature, I indicate that I have read, do understand, and agree to these Disclaimers. Any false statements given can be an immediate cause of dismissal from the program.
